

Vouchers at the New York Botanical Garden

Class Visit Voucher:

Teachers can schedule a live, virtual workshop led by a NYBG educator. Virtual workshop offerings are listed here: <https://www.nybg.org/learn/virtual-workshops-for-kids/> Call Registration at 718-817-8181 to book your virtual program - please be prepared with your voucher code!

Rainforest and Desert Exploration

Take a virtual tour of the biomes of the world in the Conservatory, and compare the climate and flora found in rain forests, deserts, and bogs. In this program, children will work together to decipher the differences between biomes.

KUSAMA: Cosmic Nature

View Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama's vibrant sculptural installations amongst the Garden landscape and discover how life cycles of plants and flowers reveal her profound connection with nature in her art.

How does your garden grow?

Explore soil, plant, and water the garden to discover ways plants grow and change seasonally. Search for plant parts we eat and taste freshly harvested vegetables. Pot up edible plants to grow at home

Where: Zoom or onsite

When: School days

Who: Up to 32 students

School Community Trip Voucher:

Unfortunately, NYBG is not offering a school community voucher experience this year.

Student +3 Voucher:

Students can visit the Garden in-person with their family by bringing a physical or digital copy of the UA Student +3 voucher to redeem at a ticket booth. Although tickets this year have a timed entry and are typically reserved ahead of time, tickets will be set aside daily to accommodate UA students and family members to ensure availability for all time slots each day! Please note that tickets do not provide access to the Enid A. Haupt Conservatory, the Holiday Train Show, or other special exhibitions, and do not cover parking fees.

Where: NYBG

When: Non-school days

Who: The UA student plus three family members