

Planning a School Community Trip to the Queens Botanical Garden

Thank you for your interest in visiting! School Community Trip vouchers are valid for instructor-led workshops, self-guided tours, and select public programs at Queens Botanical Garden. Find out more about each of the programs and book a workshop at <https://queensbotanical.org/learn/youth/>.

Workshops: Our themed and seasonal workshops guide participants through an exploration of our garden exhibits. Each theme comes with a culminating activity and take-home. Choose from one of the following workshop themes:

- Animal Architecture
- Art from the Garden
- Trees and Me
- Buzzworthy
- Bugging Out
- Plants We Eat
- Water in the City
- Nurtured by Nature
- Sustainability at QBG
- Farm Visit (April- Mid December only)

Self-Guided Tours: Explore Queens Botanical Garden at your own pace and investigate the specific exhibit areas that complement your needs and interests. Includes 10 adventure field guides, pencils, and one QBG tote bag per group.

Public Programs: Bring your school community to any of our public programs included in garden admission. These include the yearly Orchid Show, Halloween, Winter Wonder, and more! Find out more about our upcoming public programs at: <https://queensbotanical.org/calendar/>. Please reach out to teacherlearning@queensbotanical.org to book your trip.

QBG offers free admission every Wednesday from 3-6pm and Sundays from 9-11am. https://queensbotanical.org/hours\_admission/
